

ONTARIO BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

Sandy Pothier Coach

BIOGRAPHY

- Coached the Ryerson Rams for 18 seasons and is the longest serving coach in team history.
- Coached more than 220 student-athletes, including 32 OUA all-stars and award winners at Ryerson.
- Head coach with the Centre for Performance program from 2002 to 2005.
- Worked as an apprentice coach for the Canadian National Team and was an Olympian who worked as a scouting coach at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.
- Scouting coach at the 2000 Olympics.
- Head coach of Ontario Basketball's Juvenile Development Program (JDP - Central East Girls) from 1994 to 1996; won gold medal all three years.
- As a player, Pothier spent two years at Dalhousie University and three seasons at the University of Victoria, where she won a national championship in 1985.
- Played and coached professionally in Germany, winning a Southern Bavarian championship.
- Coached at every level, from the Ryerson women's team to working as an apprentice coach for the Canadian National Team.
- Developed the game of basketball at the provincial and national levels.

2012