GUIDELINES FOR BEHAVIOUR

Athletes' Behaviour Guidelines

Definition

Anyone who participates in an athletic activity is considered an athlete. It is expected that each athlete will compete to the best of his or her abilities at all times, keeping in mind the spirit of competition and of the game.

Goal Statement

Any athlete participating in OBA sanctioned events will be expected to adhere to OBA principles of Fair Play and Athletes' Guidelines for Behaviour.

Actions

Always model mature behaviour consistent with that of OBA's Guidelines for Behaviour.

Fair Play is an athlete's first priority. Participate for the love and enjoyment of the game.

Respect the efforts and accomplishments of your teammates and your opponents. Respect officials, coaches, spectators and event organizers.

Respect the facility you visit or in which you play.

Respect the rules of the game.

Coaches' Behaviour Guidelines

Definition

A coach must be a leader. A coach must encourage and motivate athletes to achieve maximum potential in preparation for athletic activity. Act as resource person, exercise leadership skills and assist in developing athletes to their full personal, athletic and academic potential. Teach and practise co-operation and self-discipline.

Goal Statement

Anyone coaching in OBA sanctioned events will be expected to adhere to OBA principles of Fair Play and Coaches' Guidelines for Behaviour.

Actions

Always model mature behaviour consistent with that of OBA's Guidelines for Behaviour.

Be a leader, a positive influence and role model.

Reward effort, Fair Play and commitment. Recognize and respect the difference in your athletes.

Demonstrate respect for all individuals involved in the game.

Always consider the physical and emotional well being of the athletes.

Respect and coach within the spirit of the game.

Always attempt to contribute to the betterment of the game.
